We're still learning about the horrific shooting in Nashville. But if early reports are accurate that a trans shooter targeted a Christian school, there needs to be a lot of soul searching on the extreme left. Giving in to these ideas isn't compassion, it's dangerous.

A week ago a video circulated of a lunatic harassing a family on a New York subway. He hurled racial slurs (the family was white) and threatened them. Alvin Bragg thinks that man should walk free and Donald Trump should go to jail for a fake misdemeanor. It's despicable.

@JDVance1

I've been asked by multiple reporters if an indictment would lead me to rescind my endorsement of Donald Trump. The answer is: hell no. A politically motivated prosecution makes the argument for Trump stronger. We simply don't have a real country if justice depends on politics.

We're still learning about the horrific shooting in Nashville. But if early reports are accurate that a trans shooter targeted a Christian school, there needs to be a lot of soul searching on the extreme left. Giving in to these ideas isn't compassion, it's dangerous.

Biden is releasing illegal aliens from China with little more than a piece of paper promising they'll eventually appear in court. Will they spy on Americans? Collect intelligence on our military installations? Our own government apparently doesn't care to find out.

Biden is releasing illegal aliens from China with little more than a piece of paper promising they'll eventually appear in court. Will they spy on Americans? Collect intelligence on our military installations? Our own government apparently doesn't care to find out.

Biden is releasing illegal aliens from China with little more than a piece of paper promising they'll eventually appear in court. Will they spy on Americans? Collect intelligence on our military installations? Our own government apparently doesn't care to find out.

Biden is releasing illegal aliens from China with little more than a piece of paper promising they'll eventually appear in court. Will they spy on Americans? Collect intelligence on our military installations? Our own government apparently doesn't care to find out.

A week ago a video circulated of a lunatic harassing a family on a New York subway. He hurled racial slurs (the family was white) and threatened them. Alvin Bragg thinks that man should walk free and Donald Trump should go to jail for a fake misdemeanor. It's despicable.

J.D. Vance
@JDVance1

We're still learning about the horrific shooting in Nashville. But if early reports are accurate that a trans shooter targeted a Christian school, there needs to be a lot of soul searching on the extreme left. Giving in to these ideas isn't compassion, it's dangerous.

I've been asked by multiple reporters if an indictment would lead me to rescind my endorsement of Donald Trump. The answer is: hell no. A politically motivated prosecution makes the argument for Trump stronger. We simply don't have a real country if justice depends on politics.

I've been asked by multiple reporters if an indictment would lead me to rescind my endorsement of Donald Trump. The answer is: hell no. A politically motivated prosecution makes the argument for Trump stronger. We simply don't have a real country if justice depends on politics.

We wouldn't be worried about Saudi Arabia cutting oil production if we just allowed American workers to drill for oil. Sad that the Tim Ryan energy plan has us begging for oil from the Saudis.

All of this "bring American manufacturing back" from the Democrats is fake unless we stop the green energy fantasy. Solar panels can't power a modern manufacturing economy. That's why the Chinese are building coal power plants, something Tim Ryan's donors won't let America do

Biden is releasing illegal aliens from China with little more than a piece of paper promising they'll eventually appear in court. Will they spy on Americans? Collect intelligence on our military installations? Our own government apparently doesn't care to find out.

A week ago a video circulated of a lunatic harassing a family on a New York subway. He hurled racial slurs (the family was white) and threatened them. Alvin Bragg thinks that man should walk free and Donald Trump should go to jail for a fake misdemeanor. It's despicable.

@JDVance1

We're still learning about the horrific shooting in Nashville. But if early reports are accurate that a trans shooter targeted a Christian school, there needs to be a lot of soul searching on the extreme left. Giving in to these ideas isn't compassion, it's dangerous.

A week ago a video circulated of a lunatic harassing a family on a New York subway. He hurled racial slurs (the family was white) and threatened them. Alvin Bragg thinks that man should walk free and Donald Trump should go to jail for a fake misdemeanor. It's despicable.

We're still learning about the horrific shooting in Nashville. But if early reports are accurate that a trans shooter targeted a Christian school, there needs to be a lot of soul searching on the extreme left. Giving in to these ideas isn't compassion, it's dangerous.

It's hard to be more of a #groomer than supporting #ChildMarriage

Talking about gender is NOT sexualization. You're just projecting your own flawed mindset onto other people who aren't as fucked up as you

Telling a straight kid that his friend has two dads and that's normal involves zero sexualization

Agreed @MarshaBlackburn supports a Tennessee bill to remove the age of consent for marriage

It's hard to be more of a #groomer than supporting #ChildMarriage

If you truly believe what you're saying, you'll speak out against #Tennessee

Talking about gender is NOT sexualization. You're just projecting your own flawed mindset onto other people who aren't as fucked up as you.

Telling a straight kid that his friend has two dads and that's normal involves zero sexualization.

Agreed @MarshaBlackburn supports a Tennessee bill to remove the age of consent for marriage.

It's hard to be more of a #groomer than supporting #ChildMarriage

Talking about gender is NOT sexualization. You're just projecting your own flawed mindset onto other people who aren't as fucked up as you

Telling a straight kid that his friend has two dads and that's normal involves zero sexualization

One Million Dollars Set Aside for FFA And 4-H Of Tennessee

Tennessee Governor Phil Bredeson met January 18th with Tennessee Association FFA President Chelsea Doss, President of TN Farm Bureau Lacy Upchurch and wife Kay, President of Farmers and Merchants Bank Waymon Hickman, and two members of the Tennessee FFA Foundation Board of Directors Jim Loftis and John Rose. At this meeting the Governor decided for the second consecutive year to set aside 1 million dollars for the FFA and 4H in Tennessee. The money the FFA has recieved in the past was invested and also used to enhance awards programs in Tennessee. The Governor has plans of increasing monetary support of these two agriculturally based organizations in the future

One Million Dollars Set Aside for FFA And 4-H Of Tennessee

Tennessee Governor Phil Bredeson met January 18th with Tennessee Association FFA President Chelsea Doss, President of TN Farm Bureau Lacy Upchurch and wife Kay, President of Farmers and Merchants Bank Waymon Hickman, and two members of the Tennessee FFA Foundation Board of Directors Jim Lofits and John Rose. At this meeting the Governor decided for the second consecutive year to set aside 1 million dollars for the FFA and 4H in Tennessee. The money the FFA has recieved in the past was invested and also used to enhance awards programs in Tennessee. The Governor has plans of increasing monetary support of these two agriculturally based organizations in the future

JD Vance a needed tweet. A lot of hate and happy that Tucker is off the air. I hear that some people may be starting up a new network that could rival many other networks. My opinion, Tucker would be a perfect fit if it's not a left wing cesspool. Let us know what you hear.

What an incredible act of cowardice from @ddayen and @rkuttnerwrites. Every journalist should know that The American Prospect will throw them under the bus if enough whiny liberals complain loudly enough on Twitter.

David Dayen @ddayen · 14h
A note on yesterday s @theprospect coverage

Editor's note: On Tuesday we published a story from two of our writers, Lee Harris and Luke Goldstein, about the firing of Tucker Carlson. We received a lot of correspondence taking issue with it. Ultimately our readers hold us accountable, and specifically, they hold me accountable as executive editor. I don't have to agree with everything that runs on the site; I certainly knew this would be controversial. But it is my job as an editor to make sure that whatever journalism or opinion we publish upholds our mission of better understanding the structures of politics and power. I don't think we quite got there with this story. I think the question of how broadcast news covers corporate predation and war, and the ways in which right-populists have attempted to co-opt these topics, can be worth interrogating. But it shouldn't downplay the motivations underlying that coverage; that's where we fell short. Journalism needs to enlighten more than it obscures and provide the necessary context. We did not in this case, and I bear responsibility.

I have always believed that the relationship between a publication and its readers is a matter of trust. For those who were disappointed in or angered by the story, I can only say that I respect your view and will work hard to earn back whatever trust has been lost. What I cannot do is turn back time. What I can do is offer a range of viewpoints. Two other members of our staff requested to write a response to the story, and we will run it when it's done.

This is literal madness

Canada's Deputy Prime Minister says, under the Emergencies Act, banks can immediately freeze or suspend bank accounts without a court order and be protected from civil liability

Is this still a free country?

Fantastic to have President Trump support our railway safety bill. He's a great friend to the people of East Palestine. If we want to prevent the next East Palestine, it's time to ignore the chamber of commerce lobby and pass this legislation.

Donald J. Trump

@realDonaldTrump · 2m

Crooked Joe Biden has still not visited the incredible Patriots of East Palestine, and Mayor Pete couldn't get out of there fast enough. But that's ok — our movement will be their voice, and we will NEVER forget them. JD Vance has been working hard in the Senate to make sure nothing like this EVER happens again, and that's why it's so important for Congress to pass his Railway Safety Act. JD's terrific bill has my Complete and Total Endorsement!!!

Just Me @LMP2112 · 20h
If only he could have mentioned that this is a bi-partisan effort. At some point, don't you want to get back to the days when both parties work together instead of all the finger pointing and one- upper nonsense? @SenSherrodBrown we've got you

J @WS41259948 · 20h
That's ironic coming from him, seeing how he is the one that deregulated and got rid of the rule that would have prevented this mess from occurring in the first place

Can You Chip In?

Please pitch in to help us preserve the Wayback Machine. Donations directly support the infrastructure that makes the Wayback Machine possible, as well as other projects like Open Library and our efforts to preserve web pages for the long term. We're a non-profit and rely on donations averaging around $15 to keep the Wayback Machine running.

We appreciate it if everyone who can afford it chips in a few dollars. Even if you've donated in the past, please consider making a small donation this year. Every bit helps. Thanks!

Tim Ryan supports hiring 87,000 IRS agents to harass Ohio small businesses. Maybe Tim and his boss Joe Biden could hire a few thousand more border patrol agents, so fewer of my neighbors die of fentanyl overdoses.

Illegal immigration is theft, plain and simple It steals wages from American workers, and drives up the cost of housing and food for our families Many in the GOP establishment who howl about illegal immigration in public defend cheap labor in private

U.S. Tech Workers @USTechWorkers · May 10

Observe how most prominent GOP politicians are talking about the current border catastrophe I'm tying their talking points to "drugs" and "human trafficking" while refusing to talk about the economic harm aspect Refreshing to see @JDVance1 discuss the latter twitter.com/ColumbiaBugle/

Why parents need the flexibility of cash payments more than universal child care
Parents crave policies that help them raise their kids, rather than funneling them into day care

It turns out that normal Americans care more about their families than their jobs, and want a family policy that doesn't shunt their kids into crap daycare so they can enjoy more "freedom" in the paid labor force.

Oh? Because he opposes government solutions to problems parents may have? Having and taking care of kids is not what is being opposed - the approach is. Let people choose their way - do not force one solution for all who may have kids. I found nothing wrong in what he wrote

Since when do "normal people" with kids not need affordable daycare, or affordable healthcare, or a government that providers the policies, services, and protections that the majority of Americans repeatedly says it wants. Denying the majority's preferences isn't democracy

Why parents need the flexibility of cash payments more than universal child care
Parents crave policies that help them raise their kids, rather than funneling them into day care

It turns out that normal Americans care more about their families than their jobs, and want a family policy that doesn't shunt their kids into crap daycare so they can enjoy more "freedom" in the paid labor force.

Since when do "normal people" with kids not need affordable daycare, or affordable healthcare, or a government that providers the policies, services, and protections that the majority of Americans repeatedly says it wants. Denying the majority's preferences isn't democracy

Oh? Because he opposes government solutions to problems parents may have? Having and taking care of kids is not what is being opposed - the approach is. Let people choose their way - do not force one solution for all who may have kids. I found nothing wrong in what he wrote

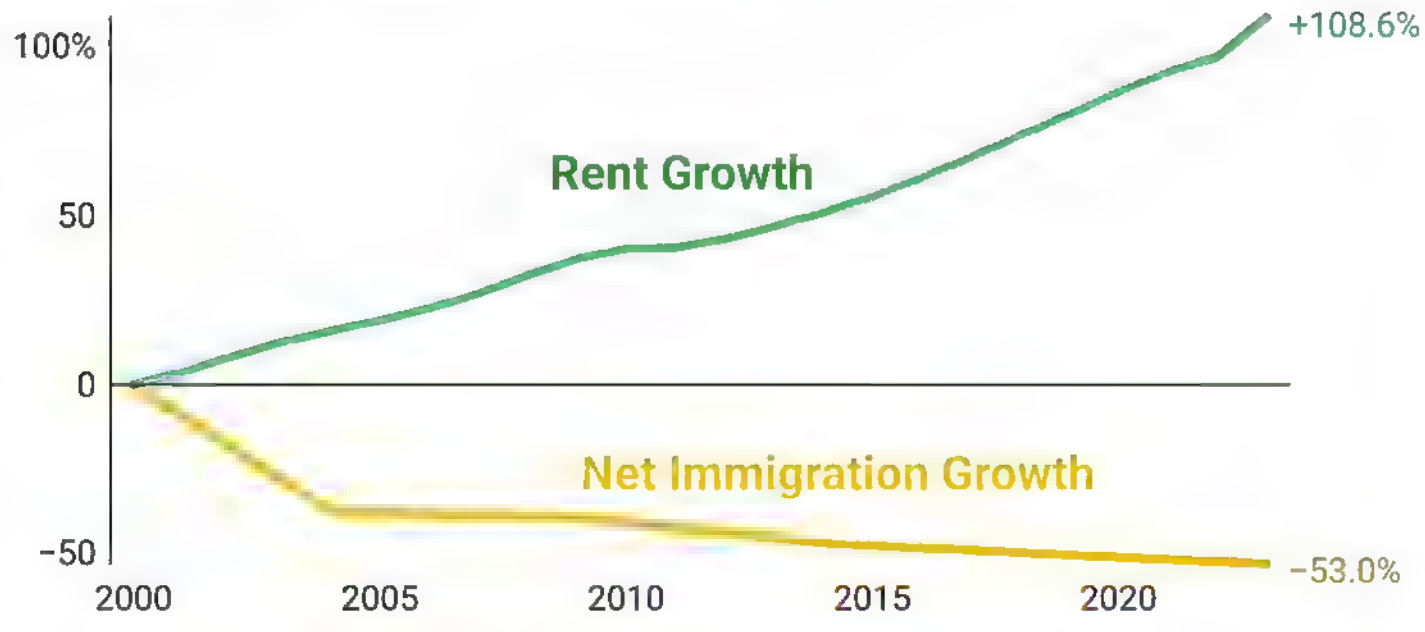
A bigger issue with people like Wolfers is that he has an IQ of 110 but thinks it's 140.

Justin Wolfers @JustinWolfers · 22h
Senator, I have put together the chart showing the two variables you were trying to link. twitter.com/JDVance1/statu…

Change in U.S. rent and net immigration since 1999

Annually; 1999-2022 (2023 data are not yet available)



Source: Rent: Bureau of Labor Statistics CPI for rent Immigration: Macrotrends net immigration data from United Nations

233 736 5,358

J.D. Vance @JDVance1 16h
Another obvious issue: the yellow line measures growth rate year over year, not net increases. In other words, a drop from 1m one head to 900k the next would be coded as a "decrease" even though the country needed to find 1.9m new homes

9 54 981

J.D. Vance @JDVance1 16h
A third obvious issue: pretty sure the yellow line measures only legal immigration. I am worried about total numbers, of which illegal immigration is the largest part. No one can argue total immigration has decreased over the last 23 years, misleading charts be damned

16 56 948

J.D. Vance @JDVance1 16h
Fourth point: many, many papers, in addition to common sense, show a strong relationship between immigration inflows and rent increase. Here's one example. There are many more econpapers.repec.org/paper/crmwpape

8 52 717

J.D. Vance @JDVance1 16h
The reason is that if you add millions of people demanding housing, but fail to increase the supply of housing, prices go up. Obviously. This is the story of American housing. There's one obvious rebuttal: build more houses

20 44 695

J.D. Vance
@JDVance1

To that I say: I agree! We should build more. But I also live in the real world, and until we build more housing, our immigration policies are stealing good, low-cost housing from our citizens. Progressives can't wish away this reality with bogus charts or bad data.

J.D. Vance @JDVance1 16h
(To be clear, the country wouldn't need to find 1.9m new homes. It would need to find homes for 1.9m new residents. Presumably not every one of those residents needs their own house.)

Will he be living out of state like @JDVance1 ?

Sherrod Brown is too busy actually working for Ohio residents than to be starting to raise money for an election 18 months away

Will he be living out of state like @JDVance1 ?

Sherrod Brown is too busy actually working for Ohio residents than to be starting to raise money for an election 18 months away

Thrilled to endorse Bernie Moreno for senate. He's a good friend, a job creator, and will be a fantastic senator. We'd make a hell of a team!

Tim Ryan supports hiring 87,000 IRS agents to harass Ohio small businesses. Maybe Tim and his boss Joe Biden could hire a few thousand more border patrol agents, so fewer of my neighbors die of fentanyl overdoses.

Illegal immigration is theft, plain and simple. It steals wages from American workers, and drives up the cost of housing and food for our families. Many in the GOP establishment who howl about illegal immigration in public defend cheap labor in private.

Can't figure out what is more disgusting, Trump's sexual assault on women or the fact the GOP, you included, still supports that sexual assaulter. You have a daughter, what kind of a father supports a man who sexually assaults women. Trump & Epstein raped a 13 year old girl

10. Defendant Trump initiated sexual contact with Plaintiff at four different parties. On the fourth and final sexual encounter with Defendant Trump, Defendant Trump tied Plaintiff to a bed, exposed himself to Plaintiff, and then proceeded to forcibly rape Plaintiff. During the course of this savage sexual attack, Plaintiff loudly pleaded with Defendant Trump to stop but with no effect. Defendant Trump responded to Plaintiff's pleas by violently striking Plaintiff in the face with his open hand and screaming that he would do whatever he wanted. Exhs. A and B.

11. Immediately following this rape, Defendant Trump threatened Plaintiff that, were she ever to reveal any of the details of the sexual and physical abuse of her by Defendant Trump, Plaintiff and her family would be physically harmed if not killed. Exhs. A and B.

Illegal immigration is theft, plain and simple. It steals wages from American workers, and drives up the cost of housing and food for our families. Many in the GOP establishment who howl about illegal immigration in public defend cheap labor in private.

Can't figure out what is more disgusting, Trump's sexual assault on women or the fact the GOP, you included, still supports that sexual assaulter. You have a daughter, what kind of a father supports a man who sexually assaults women. Trump & Epstein raped a 13 year old girl.

10. Defendant Trump initiated sexual contact with Plaintiff at four different parties. On the fourth and final sexual encounter with Defendant Trump, Defendant Trump tied Plaintiff to a bed, exposed himself to Plaintiff, and then proceeded to forcibly rape Plaintiff. During the course of this savage sexual attack, Plaintiff loudly pleaded with Defendant Trump to stop but with no effect. Defendant Trump responded to Plaintiff's pleas by violently striking Plaintiff in the face with his open hand and screaming that he would do whatever he wanted. Exhs. A and B.

11. Immediately following this rape, Defendant Trump threatened Plaintiff that, were she ever to reveal any of the details of the sexual and physical abuse of her by Defendant Trump, Plaintiff and her family would be physically harmed if not killed. Exhs. A and B.

Mass migration is a program of organized theft from American citizens. Disney is woke with the left hand and steals from American citizens with the other.

Aimee Terese @aimeeterese May 26

" Over the next three months, some Disney employees were required to train their replacements to do the jobs they had lost."I just couldn't believe they could fly people in to sit at our desks and take over our jobs exactly".

Being forced to train your replacement before getting fired is degrading and undignified. A society that promotes this in the name of tolerance, diversity--or, yes, corporate freedom --will eventually destroy itself

It turns out that normal Americans care more about their families than their jobs, and want a family policy that doesn't shunt their kids into crap daycare so they can enjoy more "freedom" in the paid labor force.

THREAD There are members of the GOP claiming Democrats got nothing from the "deal." Oh really? 1) An uncapped debt ceiling with an expiration date - worth approximately $4 trillion, ? 2) basically no cuts - a freeze at bloated 2023 spending level? #DebtCeiling (1/3)

@JDVance1

Deficit reduction isn't even my most important issue. But we didn't get permitting reform. We didn't get border security. It's not entirely clear we got anything.

Those aren't legitimate "debt ceiling" issues, Senator Thiel.

Do your job and write "stand alone" legislation if that's what you want.

Illegal immigration is theft, plain and simple. It steals wages from American workers, and drives up the cost of housing and food for our families. Many in the GOP establishment who howl about illegal immigration in public defend cheap labor in private.

Can't figure out what is more disgusting, Trump's sexual assault on women or the fact the GOP, you included, still supports that sexual assaulter. You have a daughter, what kind of a father supports a man who sexually assaults women. Trump & Epstein raped a 13 year old girl.

10. Defendant Trump initiated sexual contact with Plaintiff at four different parties. On the fourth and final sexual encounter with Defendant Trump, Defendant Trump tied Plaintiff to a bed, exposed himself to Plaintiff, and then proceeded to forcibly rape Plaintiff. During the course of this savage sexual attack, Plaintiff loudly pleaded with Defendant Trump to stop but with no effect. Defendant Trump responded to Plaintiff's pleas by violently striking Plaintiff in the face with his open hand and screaming that he would do whatever he wanted. Exhs. A and B.

11. Immediately following this rape, Defendant Trump threatened Plaintiff that, were she ever to reveal any of the details of the sexual and physical abuse of her by Defendant Trump, Plaintiff and her family would be physically harmed if not killed. Exhs. A and B.

The horror of immigration is that it is torture for the working class
A huge increase in labor supply lowers wages
That same increase in demand of course increases prices for used cars and cheaper housing
You get set back of the line twice.
It's immoral.

Can't figure out what is more disgusting, Trump's sexual assault on women or the fact the GOP, you included, still supports that sexual assaulter. You have a daughter, what kind of a father supports a man who sexually assaults women. Trump & Epstein raped a 13 year old girl.

10. Defendant Trump initiated sexual contact with Plaintiff at four different parties.

On the fourth and final sexual encounter with Defendant Trump, Defendant Trump tied Plaintiff to a bed, exposed himself to Plaintiff, and then proceeded to forcibly rape Plaintiff. During the course of this savage sexual attack, Plaintiff loudly pleaded with Defendant Trump to stop but with no effect. Defendant Trump responded to Plaintiff's pleas by violently striking Plaintiff in the face with his open hand and screaming that he would do whatever he wanted. Exhs. A and B.

11. Immediately following this rape, Defendant Trump threatened Plaintiff that, were she ever to reveal any of the details of the sexual and physical abuse of her by Defendant Trump, Plaintiff and her family would be physically harmed if not killed. Exhs. A and B.

The horror of immigration is that it is torture for the working class
A huge increase in labor supply lowers wages
That same increase in demand of course increases prices for used cars and cheaper housing
You get set back of the line twice.

Can't figure out what is more disgusting, Trump's sexual assault on women or the fact the GOP, you included, still supports that sexual assaulter. You have a daughter, what kind of a father supports a man who sexually assaults women. Trump & Epstein raped a 13 year old girl

10. Defendant Trump initiated sexual contact with Plaintiff at four different parties.

On the fourth and final sexual encounter with Defendant Trump, Defendant Trump tied Plaintiff to a bed, exposed himself to Plaintiff, and then proceeded to forcibly rape Plaintiff. During the course of this savage sexual attack, Plaintiff loudly pleaded with Defendant Trump to stop but with no effect. Defendant Trump responded to Plaintiff's pleas by violently striking Plaintiff in the face with his open hand and screaming that he would do whatever he wanted. Exhs. A and B.

11. Immediately following this rape, Defendant Trump threatened Plaintiff that, were she ever to reveal any of the details of the sexual and physical abuse of her by Defendant Trump, Plaintiff and her family would be physically harmed if not killed. Exhs. A and B.

Illegal immigration is theft, plain and simple. It steals wages from American workers, and drives up the cost of housing and food for our families. Many in the GOP establishment who howl about illegal immigration in public defend cheap labor in private.

U.S. Tech Workers @USTechWorkers · May 10
Observe how most prominent GOP politicians are talking about the current border catastrophe limiting their talking points to "drugs" and "human trafficking" while refusing to talk about the economic harm aspect. Refreshing to see @JDVance1 discuss the latter. twitter.com/ColumbiaBugle/...

You're right on these specific issues. OTOH, we have businesses around here that can't open because they have no workers. Help Wanted signs are in virtually every store and business. It's a dilemma

Can't figure out what is more disgusting, Trump's sexual assault on women or the fact the GOP, you included, still supports that sexual assaulter. You have a daughter, what kind of a father supports a man who sexually assaults women. Trump & Epstein raped a 13 year old girl

10. Defendant Trump initiated sexual contact with Plaintiff at four different parties.

On the fourth and final sexual encounter with Defendant Trump, Defendant Trump tied Plaintiff to a bed, exposed himself to Plaintiff, and then proceeded to forcibly rape Plaintiff. During the course of this savage sexual attack, Plaintiff loudly pleaded with Defendant Trump to stop but with no effect. Defendant Trump responded to Plaintiff's pleas by violently striking Plaintiff in the face with his open hand and screaming that he would do whatever he wanted. Exhs. A and B.

11. Immediately following this rape, Defendant Trump threatened Plaintiff that, were she ever to reveal any of the details of the sexual and physical abuse of her by Defendant Trump, Plaintiff and her family would be physically harmed if not killed. Exhs. A and B.

You can't make this up: Mailchimp suspended my press team's account after we announced President Trump's support for the Railway Safety Act. But big tech censorship won't stop us from fighting for the people of East Palestine.

Yeah this is the saving point. Yoda 100% knew that Rey had them hence that line he says about her having all she needs or he can't give her something that she doesn't already possess. (Can't remember the exact line)

But Yoda is aware that Rey has already taken the books with her When he says, "that library contained nothing that the girl Rey does not already possess," he doesn't mean in a metaphorical sense she's got the actual books in the Falcon.

THREAD There are members of the GOP claiming Democrats got nothing from the "deal." Oh really? 1) An uncapped debt ceiling with an expiration date - worth approximately $4 trillion, ? 2) basically no cuts - a freeze at bloated 2023 spending level? #DebtCeiling (1/3)

There are two schools of thought within the GOP on Blackrock. The old guard thinks they're creating value and need to be rewarded with tax cuts.

I think they're destroying value and are engaged in illegal and immoral conduct. They need to be dealt with accordingly

> Ryan James Girdusky @RyanGirdusky 21h
> Black Rock says they're forcing behaviors to make sure their talent pool is "diverse" attaching a point system to candidates who are not white men.

E Verify maybe the single most important immigration issue. Also tells you who's willing to buck the chamber of commerce to serve our citizens

Anthony Sabatini @AnthonySabatini Jan 10, 2022
Florida has over 1,000,000+ illegal immigrants

THOUSANDS more coming every month

The so-called "Republican" Legislature is doing NOTHING about it

In fact, they are BLOCKING my bill, HB 6001, a bill that mandates E-Verify & stops illegals from working in Florida

VERY CORRUPT!

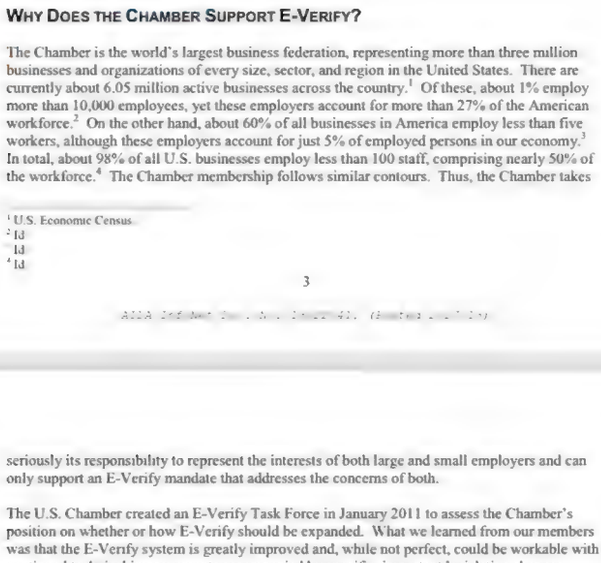
The Chamber supports E-Verify a la.org/FreeRetard/1 .



WHY DOES THE CHAMBER SUPPORT E-VERIFY?

The Chamber is the world's largest business federation, representing more than three million businesses and organizations of every size, sector, and region in the United States. There are currently about 6.05 million active businesses across the country.[1] Of these, about 1% employ more than 10,000 employees, yet these employers account for more than 27% of the American workforce.[2] On the other hand, about 60% of all businesses in America employ less than five workers, although these employers account for just 5% of employed persons in our economy.[3] In total, about 98% of all U.S. businesses employ less than 100 staff, comprising nearly 50% of the workforce.[4] The Chamber membership follows similar contours. Thus, the Chamber takes seriously its responsibility to represent the interests of both large and small employers and can only support an E-Verify mandate that addresses the concerns of both.

The U.S. Chamber created an E-Verify Task Force in January 2011 to assess the Chamber's position on whether or how E-Verify should be expanded. What we learned from our members was that the E-Verify system is greatly improved and, while not perfect, could be workable with continued technical improvements accompanied by specific, important legislative changes.

Taking a controversial stand will never increase their customer base. Backpedaling, even just a little, will cost them more customers

Ben and Jerrys is another brand that needs to feel the hurt. I've noticed that they love to put their communist ice cream stores in extremely conservative parts of the country. Makes me sick to watch them profit off the same people they actively work to destroy

The question of whether Trump should have kept those documents is fundamentally a political question. Criticize it, attack it, vote against it. But prosecuting a president over his own government's documents is turning a political issue into a legal one.

It's insane to me that the people who shout from the rooftops about "OUR DEMOCRACY" have taken this position. Unelected bureaucrats can throw the elected president in prison for "mishandling" documents. Does Article 2 mean anything? If so, Trump did nothing wrong.

Maybe you disagree. Maybe you think he should have kept the documents in a safe. Fine. Then go vote against him. I try to understand the left's perspective, but on this question—throwing Trump in prison over a political issue—they've passed the Rubicon. There is no going back.

The worst argument I've heard is this: "Trump said on tape he could have declassified the documents but didn't!" First of all, let's see what he actually said. Second, what the president did is infinitely more important than what a former president said.

prosecuting a president over his own government's documents is turning a political issue into a legal one

Readers added context they thought people might want to know

The 38 federal felony charges against Donald Trump are not about his conduct while he was president. He ceased to be president on 1/20/21. All the allegations are about conduct of a private citizen. Documents aren't "his government's" because he's no longer president.

I've heard many other bad arguments. I'm sure I'll address them in the coming days. I'm cynical about politics. But it really is shocking that the left is taking the view that they can prosecute people selectively for mishandling documents

My message to conservatives: this is the most important thing that's happened in our government in at least a decade. I think you should vote for Trump. But whoever your candidate is, if the opposition can use the legal system like this with no consequence, the Republic is over.

This idea that we need to end the administrative state gets our problem totally backwards. America will have a justice department no matter what. The goal should be to make it responsive to the People. Don't end it, because it can't be done. Take it over.

There's no evidence he ever had any of it declassified. He's now on tape admitted he didn't. Thos couldn't be any clearer.

Yeah it seems a bit odd. He was president and had complete authority over the documents. He took an oath. So in essence once a president always a president. The fact that he could die in prison over these documents he had control over is insane to me

READ THE INDICTMENT. You're arguing with what Trump said in it.

Stacy @Rayyn · 9h
He declassified "by thinking it". Meaning he didn't.

He said he didn't. He told us what he did. What he did was not declassify anything then steal classifies information

What does Trump have on you J.D.? Nobody would defend a criminal the way you are defending espionage Trump like you are unless he had some damaging information on you.

prosecuting a president over his own government's documents is turning a political issue into a legal one

Readers added context they thought people might want to know

The 38 federal felony charges against Donald Trump are not about his conduct while he was president. He ceased to be president on 1/20/21. All the allegations are about conduct of a private citizen. Documents aren't "his government's" because he s no longer president.

It's insane to me that the people who shout from the rooftops about "OUR DEMOCRACY" have taken this position: unelected bureaucrats can throw the elected president in prison for "mishandling" documents. Does Article 2 mean anything? If so Trump did nothing wrong.

Maybe you disagree. Maybe you think he should have kept the documents in a safe. Fine. Then go vote against him. I try to understand the left's perspective, but on this question—throwing Trump in prison over a political issue—they've passed the Rubicon. There is no going back

I find it curious how every R politician completely ignores how Trump intentionally obstructed the return of documents, even so much as lying to his own lawyers, but if you're Vance, it's just "mishandling"

All eight stages of Trump's guilt
1 "I d dn't do it"
2 "I d dn't do anything wrong"
3 "I d dn't do anything illegal"
4 "The people accusing me are guilty"
5 "The law is illegal"
6 "Prove it!"

A week ago a video circulated of a lunatic harassing a family on a New York subway. He hurled racial slurs (the family was white) and threatened them. Alvin Bragg thinks that man should walk free and Donald Trump should go to jail for a fake misdemeanor. It's despicable.

Florida has over 1,000,000+ illegal immigrants

THOUSANDS more coming every month

The so-called "Republican" Legislature is doing NOTHING about it

In fact, they are BLOCKING my bill, HB 6001, a bill that mandates E-Verify & stops illegals from working in Florida

VERY CORRUPT!

The Chamber supports E-Verify a la org/HeRe ated/1 .

WHY DOES THE CHAMBER SUPPORT E-VERIFY?

The Chamber is the world's largest business federation, representing more than three million businesses and organizations of every size, sector, and region in the United States. There are currently about 6.05 million active businesses across the country.[1] Of these, about 1% employ more than 10,000 employees, yet these employers account for more than 27% of the American workforce.[2] On the other hand, about 60% of all businesses in America employ less than five workers, although these employers account for just 5% of employed persons in our economy.[3] In total, about 98% of all U.S. businesses employ less than 100 staff, comprising nearly 50% of the workforce.[4] The Chamber membership follows similar contours. Thus, the Chamber takes seriously its responsibility to represent the interests of both large and small employers and can only support an E-Verify mandate that addresses the concerns of both.

The U.S. Chamber created an E-Verify Task Force in January 2011 to assess the Chamber's position on whether or how E-Verify should be expanded. What we learned from our members was that the E-Verify system is greatly improved and, while not perfect, could be workable with continued technical improvements accompanied by specific, important legislative changes.

Florida has over 1,000,000+ illegal immigrants

THOUSANDS more coming every month

The so-called "Republican" Legislature is doing NOTHING about it

In fact, they are BLOCKING my bill, HB 6001, a bill that mandates E-Verify & stops illegals from working in Florida

VERY CORRUPT!

Verification of Employment Eligibility by a Private Employer

General Bill by Sabatini

Verification of Employment Eligibility by a Private Employer: Removes option for private employer to verify person's employment eligibility using specified federal form; removes requirement that private employer maintain records for specified length of time; removes authorization for certain persons & entities to request, & requirement that private employer provide, documentation relating to person's employment eligibility.

The Chamber supports E-Verify: a la.org/FreeReader/1 .

WHY DOES THE CHAMBER SUPPORT E-VERIFY?

The Chamber is the world's largest business federation, representing more than three million businesses and organizations of every size, sector, and region in the United States. There are currently about 6.05 million active businesses across the country.[1] Of these, about 1% employ more than 10,000 employees, yet these employers account for more than 27% of the American workforce.[2] On the other hand, about 60% of all businesses in America employ less than five workers, although these employers account for just 5% of employed persons in our economy.[3] In total, about 98% of all U.S. businesses employ less than 100 staff, comprising nearly 50% of the workforce.[4] The Chamber membership follows similar contours. Thus, the Chamber takes seriously its responsibility to represent the interests of both large and small employers and can only support an E-Verify mandate that addresses the concerns of both.

The U.S. Chamber created an E-Verify Task Force in January 2011 to assess the Chamber's position on whether or how E-Verify should be expanded. What we learned from our members was that the E-Verify system is greatly improved and, while not perfect, could be workable with continued technical improvements accompanied by specific, important legislative changes.

Re: Robert Hunter Biden

Dear Mr. Kincaid:

Enclosed, please find two Informations to be docketed in criminal matters involving the above-referenced defendant. The first Information charges the defendant with tax offenses—namely, two counts of willful failure to pay federal income tax, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203. The defendant has agreed to plead guilty to both counts of the tax Information. The second Information charges the defendant with a firearm offense—namely, one count of possession of a firearm by a person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to a controlled substance, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2) (2018). The defendant has agreed to enter a Pretrial Diversion Agreement with respect to the firearm Information.

The defendant is represented by Christopher J. Clark. The parties jointly request that the Court schedule a consolidated Initial Appearance on the firearm Information and an Initial Appearance and Change of Plea Hearing on the tax Information charges. Original, executed copies of the Memorandum of Plea Agreement related to the tax Information, and the Pretrial Diversion Agreement related to the firearm Information, will be submitted at or in advance of the Hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

The second Information charges the defendant with a firearm offense—namely, one count of possession of a firearm by a person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to a controlled substance, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2) (2018). The defendant has agreed to enter a Pretrial Diversion Agreement with respect to the firearm Information.

The defendant is represented by Christopher J. Clark. The parties jointly request that the Court schedule a consolidated Initial Appearance on the firearm Information and an Initial Appearance and Change of Plea Hearing on the tax Information charges. Original, executed copies of the Memorandum of Plea Agreement related to the tax Information, and the Pretrial Diversion Agreement related to the firearm Information, will be submitted at or in advance of the Hearing.

Any other American would have the book thrown at them. The president's son gets a slap on the wrist

This is exhibit 1,402 for why I'm holding Biden's DOJ nominees.

We have a two-tiered justice system in our country. It's a disgrace.

JUST IN Hunter BIDEN has pleaded guilty to two misdemeano tax offenses and entered a diversion agreement on a felony count of being a drug user in possession of a firearm. storage courtlistener com/recap/gov.usco .

Re: Robert Hunter Biden

Dear Mr. Kincaid:

Enclosed, please find two Informations to be docketed in criminal matters involving the above-referenced defendant. The first Information charges the defendant with tax offenses—namely, two counts of willful failure to pay federal income tax, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203. The defendant has agreed to plead guilty to both counts of the tax Information. The second Information charges the defendant with a firearm offense—namely, one count of possession of a firearm by a person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to a controlled substance, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2) (2018). The defendant has agreed to enter a Pretrial Diversion Agreement with respect to the firearm Information.

The defendant is represented by Christopher J. Clark. The parties jointly request that the Court schedule a consolidated Initial Appearance on the firearm Information and an Initial Appearance and Change of Plea Hearing on the tax Information charges. Original, executed copies of the Memorandum of Plea Agreement related to the tax Information, and the Pretrial Diversion Agreement related to the firearm Information, will be submitted at or in advance of the Hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

How can you say that when the former President is about to be convicted of 37 counts of a very serious set of crimes that will likely result in incarceration? I think mercy in this case is warranted, as the risk of recidivism is low

JUST IN: Hunter BIDEN has pleaded guilty to two misdemeanor tax offenses and entered a diversion agreement on a felony count of being a drug user in possession of a firearm. storage.courtlistener.com/recap/gov.usco...

Re: Robert Hunter Biden

Dear Mr. Kincaid:

Enclosed, please find two Informations to be docketed in criminal matters involving the above-referenced defendant. The first Information charges the defendant with tax offenses—namely, two counts of willful failure to pay federal income tax, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203. The defendant has agreed to plead guilty to both counts of the tax Information. The second Information charges the defendant with a firearm offense—namely, one count of possession of a firearm by a person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to a controlled substance, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2) (2018). The defendant has agreed to enter a Pretrial Diversion Agreement with respect to the firearm Information.

The defendant is represented by Christopher J. Clark. The parties jointly request that the Court schedule a consolidated Initial Appearance on the firearm Information and an Initial Appearance and Change of Plea Hearing on the tax Information charges. Original, executed copies of the Memorandum of Plea Agreement related to the tax Information, and the Pretrial Diversion Agreement related to the firearm Information, will be submitted at or in advance of the Hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Robert Hunter Biden

Dear Mr. Kincaid:

Enclosed, please find two Informations to be docketed in criminal matters involving the above-referenced defendant. The first Information charges the defendant with tax offenses—namely, two counts of willful failure to pay federal income tax, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203. The defendant has agreed to plead guilty to both counts of the tax Information. The second Information charges the defendant with a firearm offense—namely, one count of possession of a firearm by a person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to a controlled substance, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2) (2018). The defendant has agreed to enter a Pretrial Diversion Agreement with respect to the firearm Information.

The defendant is represented by Christopher J. Clark. The parties jointly request that the Court schedule a consolidated Initial Appearance on the firearm Information and an Initial Appearance and Change of Plea Hearing on the tax Information charges. Original, executed copies of the Memorandum of Plea Agreement related to the tax Information, and the Pretrial Diversion Agreement related to the firearm Information, will be submitted at or in advance of the Hearing.

That's a lie Mr. Vance. Most folks that payoff their tax bill don't get charged with any crimes at all. They get charged a big chunk of interest but don't normally get charged for even a misdemeanor. The gun charge rarely gets prosecuted either. So Hunter didn't get a "sweetheart .. Visa fler

Any other American would have the book thrown at them. The president's son gets a slap on the wrist

This is exhibit 1,402 for why I'm holding Biden's DOJ nominees.

We have a two-tiered justice system in our country. It's a disgrace.

JUST IN: Hunter BIDEN has pleaded guilty to two misdemeanor tax offenses and entered a diversion agreement on a felony count of being a drug user in possession of a firearm. storage.courtlistener.com/recap/gov.usco...

Re: Robert Hunter Biden

Dear Mr. Kincaid:

Enclosed, please find two Informations to be docketed in criminal matters involving the above-referenced defendant. The first Information charges the defendant with tax offenses—namely, two counts of willful failure to pay federal income tax, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203. The defendant has agreed to plead guilty to both counts of the tax Information. The second Information charges the defendant with a firearm offense—namely, one count of possession of a firearm by a person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to a controlled substance, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2) (2018). The defendant has agreed to enter a Pretrial Diversion Agreement with respect to the firearm Information.

The defendant is represented by Christopher J. Clark. The parties jointly request that the Court schedule a consolidated Initial Appearance on the firearm Information and an Initial Appearance and Change of Plea Hearing on the tax Information charges. Original, executed copies of the Memorandum of Plea Agreement related to the tax Information, and the Pretrial Diversion Agreement related to the firearm Information, will be submitted at or in advance of the Hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

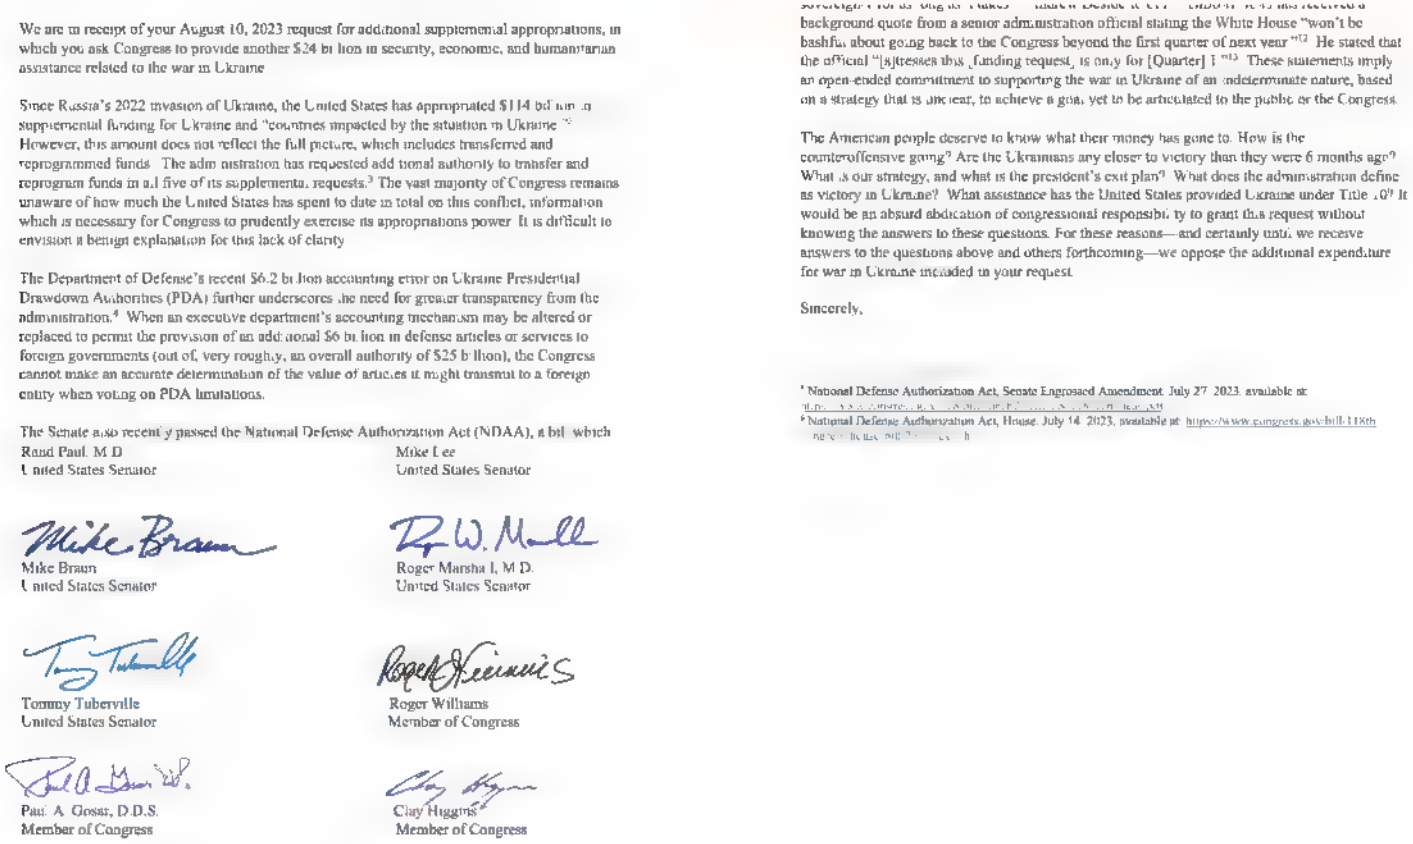
Yesterday at a classified briefing over Ukraine, it became clear that America is being asked to fund an indefinite conflict with unlimited resources

Enough is enough. To these and future requests, my colleagues and I say: NO.



We are in receipt of your August 10, 2023 request for additional supplemental appropriations, in which you ask Congress to provide another $24 billion in security, economic, and humanitarian assistance related to the war in Ukraine.

Since Russia's 2022 invasion of Ukraine, the United States has appropriated $114 billion in supplemental funding for Ukraine and "countries impacted by the situation in Ukraine."[1] However, this amount does not reflect the full picture, which includes transferred and reprogrammed funds. The administration has requested additional authority to transfer and reprogram funds in all five of its supplemental requests.[2] The vast majority of Congress remains unaware of how much the United States has spent to date in total on this conflict, information which is necessary for Congress to prudently exercise its appropriations power. It is difficult to envision a benign explanation for this lack of clarity.

The Department of Defense's recent $6.2 billion accounting error on Ukraine Presidential Drawdown Authorities (PDA) further underscores the need for greater transparency from the administration.[4] When an executive department's accounting mechanism may be altered or replaced to permit the provision of an additional $6 billion in defense articles or services to foreign governments (out of, very roughly, an overall authority of $25 billion), the Congress cannot make an accurate determination of the value of articles it might transmit to a foreign entity when voting on PDA limitations.

The Senate also recently passed the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA), a bill which background quote from a senior administration official stating the White House "won't be bashful about going back to the Congress beyond the first quarter of next year."[12] He stated that the official "[s]tresses this funding request, is only for [Quarter] 1."[13] These statements imply an open-ended commitment to supporting the war in Ukraine of an indeterminate nature, based on a strategy that is unclear, to achieve a goal yet to be articulated to the public or the Congress.

The American people deserve to know what their money has gone to. How is the counteroffensive going? Are the Ukrainians any closer to victory than they were 6 months ago? What is our strategy, and what is the president's exit plan? What does the administration define as victory in Ukraine? What assistance has the United States provided Ukraine under Title 10? It would be an absurd abdication of congressional responsibility to grant this request without knowing the answers to these questions. For these reasons—and certainly until we receive answers to the questions above and others forthcoming—we oppose the additional expenditure for war in Ukraine included in your request.

Sincerely,

1) The same idiots who push the most aggressive posture in Ukraine (you) did the same in Iraq (also you)

2) the bizarre and reflexive WW2 analogies "If we don't stop him here. ." "Neville Chamberlain also said . ."

3) The defense of the policy in terms of generic institutional deference and international norms rather than concrete American interest

4) The belief that tough talk and suicidal depletion of resources is an effective deterrent rather than, say, not wasting thousands of lives, billions of dollars, and much of our modern weapons of war.

5) The mission creep. From eliminating weapons of mass destruction to building a liberal democracy in Iraq From stopping the Russian advance to reclaiming every inch of territory to toppling Putin in Eastern Europe.

6) The moralistic defense of our policies (freedom! democracy!) despite the fact that our client states are neither free nor democratic

7) The failure of our elites to acknowledge that our policies are enabling the persecution of historic Christian communities.

8) The fact that our policies unite our adversaries together Iraq and Iran then, Russia and China now.

9) Both led (or will lead) to massive refugee crises that destabilize European allies and threaten our security. (I'm sure you and others will try to distance yourselves from the consequences of driving up food prices and migration pressures for the entire continent of Africa)

10) Both empower China.

Other than that, yeah, totally different.

Since I've got your attention, are you/Ukraine still planning to kill people who engage in speech you don't like? And are there any American citizens on the kill list?

Since the staff of @JDVance1 is keeping a close eye on my Twitter, I'd ask that the Senator kindly back the delivery of ATACMS to Ukraine, so we can end this war of Russian aggression as quickly as possible and make sure the next lost life is the last lost life of this genocide

Yesterday at a classified briefing over Ukraine, it became clear that America is being asked to fund an indefinite conflict with unlimited resources

Enough is enough. To these and future requests, my colleagues and I say: NO.

We are in receipt of your August 10, 2023 request for additional supplemental appropriations, in which you ask Congress to provide another $24 billion in security, economic, and humanitarian assistance related to the war in Ukraine.

Since Russia's 2022 invasion of Ukraine, the United States has appropriated $114 billion in supplemental funding for Ukraine and "countries impacted by the situation in Ukraine."[1] However, this amount does not reflect the full picture, which includes transferred and reprogrammed funds. The administration has requested additional authority to transfer and reprogram funds in all five of its supplemental requests.[2] The vast majority of Congress remains unaware of how much the United States has spent to date in total on this conflict, information which is necessary for Congress to prudently exercise its appropriations power. It is difficult to envision a benign explanation for this lack of clarity.

The Department of Defense's recent $6.2 billion accounting error on Ukraine Presidential Drawdown Authorities (PDA) further underscores the need for greater transparency from the administration.[4] When an executive department's accounting mechanism may be altered or replaced to permit the provision of an additional $6 billion in defense articles or services to foreign governments (out of, very roughly, an overall authority of $25 billion), the Congress cannot make an accurate determination of the value of articles it might transmit to a foreign entity when voting on PDA limitations.

The Senate also recently passed the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA), a bill which

background quote from a senior administration official stating the White House "won't be bashful about going back to the Congress beyond the first quarter of next year."[12] He stated that the official "[a]ddresses this [funding request] is only for [Quarter] 1."[13] These statements imply an open-ended commitment to supporting the war in Ukraine of an indeterminate nature, based on a strategy that is unclear, to achieve a goal yet to be articulated to the public or the Congress.

The American people deserve to know what their money has gone to. How is the counteroffensive going? Are the Ukrainians any closer to victory than they were 6 months ago? What is our strategy, and what is the president's exit plan? What does the administration define as victory in Ukraine? What assistance has the United States provided Ukraine under Title 10? It would be an absurd abdication of congressional responsibility to grant this request without knowing the answers to these questions. For these reasons—and certainly until we receive answers to the questions above and others forthcoming—we oppose the additional expenditure for war in Ukraine included in your request.

The administration has requested additional authority to transfer and reprogram funds in all five of its supplemental requests.[2] The vast majority of Congress remains unaware of how much the United States has spent to date in total on this conflict, information which is necessary for Congress to prudently exercise its appropriations power. It is difficult to envision a benign explanation for this lack of clarity.

The Department of Defense's recent $6.2 billion accounting error on Ukraine Presidential Drawdown Authorities (PDA) further underscores the need for greater transparency from the administration.[4] When an executive department's accounting mechanism may be altered or replaced to permit the provision of an additional $6 billion in defense articles or services to foreign governments (out of, very roughly, an overall authority of $25 billion), the Congress cannot make an accurate determination of the value of articles it might transmit to a foreign entity when voting on PDA limitations.

We are in receipt of your August 10, 2023 request for additional supplemental appropriations, in which you ask Congress to provide another $24 billion in security, economic, and humanitarian assistance related to the war in Ukraine.

Since Russia's 2022 invasion of Ukraine, the United States has appropriated $114 billion in supplemental funding for Ukraine and "countries impacted by the situation in Ukraine."[1] However, this amount does not reflect the full picture, which includes transferred and reprogrammed funds. The administration has requested additional authority to transfer and reprogram funds in all five of its supplemental requests.[3] The vast majority of Congress remains unaware of how much the United States has spent to date in total on this conflict, information which is necessary for Congress to prudently exercise its appropriations power. It is difficult to envision a benign explanation for this lack of clarity.

background quote from a senior administration official stating the White House "won't be bashful about going back to the Congress beyond the first quarter of next year."[2] He stated that the official "[a]ttaches this funding request, is only for [Quarter] 1."[3] These statements imply an open-ended commitment to supporting the war in Ukraine of an indeterminate nature, based on a strategy that is unclear, to achieve a goal, yet to be articulated to the public or the Congress.

The American people deserve to know what their money has gone to. How is the counteroffensive going? Are the Ukrainians any closer to victory than they were 6 months ago? What is our strategy, and what is the president's exit plan? What does the administration define as victory in Ukraine? What assistance has the United States provided Ukraine under Title 10? It would be an absurd abdication of congressional responsibility to grant this request without knowing the answers to these questions. What Biden is doing is disgusting He's using dead children in Israel to sell his disastrous Ukraine policy to skeptical Americans.

They are not the same countries, they are not the same problems, and this effort to use Israel for political cover is offensive

Hell no.

J.D. Vance
@JDVance1

The most important point about Claudine Gay's plagiarism isn't that she was fired, but that she had the job--the most prestigious job in higher education--after an extremely thin record of accomplishment. Claudine Gay has never published an article—even a plagiarized one—that really mattered, or significantly advanced scholarship. She got her job not through merit, but because she checked a box. In this, she is not an outlier, but a representative of a system of education that rewards mediocrity.

Our entire elite is like this. People who got their jobs because they checked boxes, not because they achieved something amazing or accomplished something meaningful. That is now the purpose of our elite universities, to give credentials that signal fake merit rather than rely on real excellence.

This is why you should mock the public health experts who want you to mask toddlers in their schools to stop the spread of a respiratory virus. These public health experts are not smart or accomplished, they have a credential from an institution that cares more about box checking than merit.

This is why you should ignore the economists who tell you that mass migration raises the wages of the working class or has no effect on housing prices, even though I've heard from multiple corporate leaders that they want more immigration in order to pay their workers lower wages. These economists are not smart or accomplished, they have a credential from an institution that cares more about box checking than merit.

This is why you should laugh at the foreign policy experts who will tell you that we should allow east Asia to make all of our steel, phones, and pharmaceuticals, while sending all of our weapons to a war in Eastern Europe that has little to do with our core national interests. These foreign policy experts are not smart or accomplished, they have a credential from an institution that cares more about box checking than merit.

This is why you should scorn the attorneys who tell you that Donald Trump committed "insurrection" and should be thrown off the ballot. They have no special legal knowledge. They are political hacks pretending to be lawyers, and they are not smart or accomplished, they have a credential from an institution that cares more about box checking than merit.

This is why you should question the doctors who tell you to prescribe experimental pharmaceuticals to gender-confused children. These doctors are not smart or accomplished, they have a credential from an institution that cares more about box checking than merit.

The real story of Harvard is not Claudine Gay's firing but this:

You are ruled by thousands of people who are just as mediocre. Their power relies on tax advantages from the federal government, a DEI bureaucracy backed by Biden's Department of Justice, and the implicit consent of millions of Americans.

I say we withdraw that consent, and all the favors that come along with it.

All US employment growth during the Biden administration has gone to the foreign born.

Native born Americans have been left behind by Bidenomics.

Good thing the Senate is doing nothing on border security while printing more money for foreign wars.

Long overdue, but it's time to break Google up.

This matters far more than any other election integrity issue. The monopolistic control of information in our society resides with an explicitly progressive technology company.

I have a long memory. If you're fighting Trump and his endorsed candidates politically today, don't ask for my help in a year with your legislation or your pet projects.

Readers added context they thought people might want to know

Vance has publicly called Trump an "idiot", "reprehensible" and "noxious" In Facebook messages, Vance wrote "I go back and forth between thinking Trump is a cynical asshole like Nixon who wouldn't be that bad. or that he's America's Hitler" ft com content/ffa01c..

Context is written by people who use X, and appears when rated helpful by others Find out more.

@JDVance1

Low inflation, rising wages, and a world that wasn't on fire under Trump. Rising inflation, a stagnant economy, and a crisis in every corner of the world under Joe Biden.

Something went wrong, but don't fret — let's give it another shot.

Try again

Something went wrong, but don't fret — it's not your fault.
